

Ronnie Ball Award

Name	Robert Goodwin
Location	Lancashire
Award Granted	Silver
Date	November 2002

Summary of application

Robert, (14), hopes to become a gamekeeper and sees the craft of dry stone walling as a component part of his career, together with shooting and fishing. Robert joined the Lancashire Branch of the Dry Stone Walling Association and members were keen to help further his enthusiasm for the craft. He helped with some of the building work on a project that was subsequently granted a Pinnacle Award and also attended numerous training weekends organised by the local branch. In June this year Robert achieved his Initial Craftsman Certification Scheme certificate.

Robert was presented with his award at the DSWA AGM held in South Wales in November.
