

DRY STONE WALLING QUALIFICATION TRAINING COURSES

*Want to work in the countryside? Want to broaden your skill set?
Why not train for qualifications in dry stone walling?*

Training available at all levels for people looking to follow a career in dry stone walling or interested in increasing their skill level. Courses provide training towards the DSWA Craftsman Certification Scheme Lantra Accredited qualifications in dry stone walling. Information on the DSWA Craftsman Certification Scheme is available at <https://www.dswa.org.uk/certification/>

Training is delivered by Master Craftsman Instructors at our National Training Centre near Kendal, Cumbria.

Training held on Monday - Thursday with an optional Test Day on the Friday.
Group courses available by prior arrangement. All course dates/levels are subject to demand.

Training Course Cost - £250 per person (accommodation not included). For more details contact DSWA Training & Education Coordinator, email training@dswa.org.uk

Tests to be booked separately by contacting the DSWA office, email information@dswa.org.uk.

National Training Site Training Courses and Test Dates 2020

23 - 26 March	Qualification Course (Initial) 4 days
27 March	Open Test Day - all levels
20 - 23 April	Qualification Course (Intermediate) 4 days
24 April	Open Test Day - all levels
18 - 21 May	Qualification Course (Intermediate/Advanced) 4 days
22 May	Open Test Day - all levels
22 - 25 June	Qualification Course (Initial/Intermediate) 4 days
26 June	Open Test Day - all levels
17 - 20 August	Qualification Course (Initial/Intermediate) 4 days
21 August	Open Test Day - all levels
21- 24 September	Qualification Course (Advanced/Masters) 4 days
25 September	Open Test Day - all levels

We will also be running the ever popular residential course in the Lake District, working on National Trust walls in the area from 6 - 9 July 2020 and staying at the National Trust Basecamp, Ambleside, Cumbria, LA22 0JE.