

Dry Stone Walling Qualification Training Courses

Want to work in the countryside? Want to broaden your skill set?
Why not train for qualifications in dry stone walling?

Training available at all levels for people looking to follow a career in dry stone walling or interested in increasing their skill level. Courses provide training towards the DSWA Craftsman Certification Scheme Lantra Accredited qualifications in dry stone walling. Information on the DSWA Craftsman Certification Scheme is available at <https://www.dswa.org.uk/certification/>. Training is delivered by Master Craftsman Instructors at our National Training Centre near Kendal, Cumbria and is held on Monday - Thursday. There is an optional Test Day on the Friday. All course dates/levels are subject to demand. Additional course dates may be arranged if needed. Group/bespoke courses available by prior arrangement.

Training Course Cost - £275 per person (accommodation not included).
