JOB OPPORTUNITY

RURAL SKILLS HUB COORDINATOR

Do you have a passion for the countryside and traditional skills and able to share that enthusiasm with a wide range of people throughout the UK? The Dry Stone Walling Association partnering with the National Hedgelaying Society have received funding from the Defra Green Recovery Challenge Fund to launch a national Rural Skills Hub offering advice and training in traditional boundary crafts. We are looking for a Rural Skills Hub Coordinator with the drive and energy to deliver this exciting new initiative over a period of 18 months from September 2021. The post will be for 35 hours per week, offering homeworking plus access, as necessary, to facilities at the DSWA Head Office at Crooklands near Kendal, Cumbria. Salary: £22,000 per annum.
