

4 Day Dry Stone Walling Training Course

at DSWA National Training Site, Lane Farm, Crooklands, Milnthorpe, Cumbria LA7 7NH

Aimed at those working towards Lantra Accredited dry stone walling qualifications.

Training available at Level 1 & 2 for people looking to follow a career in dry stone walling or wanting to enhance their dry stone walling skills. Four days training Mon—Thurs. There will be the option of a Test Day on the Friday

Programme (approximate timings):

Monday	9.30 am - Arrival at DSWA National Training Site, Crooklands Introduction & Health & Safety Briefing Dry stone Walling course led by a Master Craftsman Instructor 5.00 pm finish
Tuesday	9.00 am – 5.00 pm Day Two Training Day
Wednesday	9.00 am – 5.00 pm Day Three Training Day
Thursday	9.00 am—5.00 pm Training Day or Mock Assessment (Optional)

Optional Assessment Day on the Friday to be booked in advance. Assessment fees appropriate to the Qualification Level to be paid in addition to the course fee. You will need proof of ID for the Assessment Day.

Please bring protective clothing, waterproofs, safety boots (steel toe caps), work gloves and safety goggles (if undertaking Level 2). You will need to bring your own lunch / refreshments each day as there are no food outlets close by.

We can provide details of local accommodation, if required.

For more details contact:

DSWA Training & Education Coordinator, Email: training@dswa.org.uk